“ Dear Lynn and family- we are so sorry for your loss. Bruce remembers Gary as an overall nice guy from Wabash IN. We remember him from the Beta house and when he and Bruce lived with Feeback and Jensen. There were always many laughs and just good fun. We just had a fun laugh remembering his one short arm and how he said he couldn't get his hand over his heart! But, we also remember his kind heart and smiling ways. We hope fond memories and love get you through tough days as you miss your husband,dad,grandpa and good friend.

With sincere sympathy,
Bruce and Deb Guebard

“ Dear Lynn and Family,
My condolences and heart felt sympathy. Gary and I were best of friends back at Wabash College. I was thankful to be at your wedding, but feel guilty for not staying in touch over the ensuing years. I pray that your faith, friends and family can help you through this difficult time. Gary was well liked at college and I will miss him very much.

In Sympathy,

Bill Bockstahler

“ Dear Lynn and Family,

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I remember Gary as always smiling. He seemed like the kind of person that didn't know a stranger. My love and prayers go out to your family at this difficult time. May God comfort you in your loss.

Love and prayers,

Linda Silvey
