“ Barb. I'm so very sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She made and held a special place in my heart. She is a big loss to many people, I'm sure. My deepest sympathy goes out to you, Tony and the rest of the family. The common, and often used phrase by those expressing their condolences, are so justly used for Joyce. She really and truly is in a much better place, with her Lord and Saviour, Jesus and God, our Father. JB.

“ My condolences go out to Barb and Tony and their families. I first met Joyce at Russell Stovers when she was my assistant manager. I was blessed to work with her and she later on became one of my dearest friend. We then also became neighbors at Jamestown apartments. I will miss her very much but I know she is in a better place!

“ I got to meet Ms. Joyce Taylor back in 2005, while she was working at the Russell Stover candy store. She was a sweet lady, always with a smile for every one. My condolences to Barb, Amanda and the entire. May Ms. Joyce rest in peace in the arms of our Creator.
