“ I remember as a young child enjoying an adventure with my cousin Jerri when Aunt Ona Mae would drive us around Seymour - taking us roller skating or to eat at the Dog and Suds! She made our childhood so much fun!
We would sing silly songs and laugh ... such joy!

“ Since moving to Cortland in 2009, Ona Mae has been a bright spot in my life. She was a beautiful neighbor, a sweet grandma, and a spunky, funny woman. I enjoyed chatting with her & miss seeing her out tending her flowers. Rest In Peace, lovely lady.
