“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of my friend Tom. I knew Tom 6 years ago when I supported him with his Buffalo Wild Wings remodel projects. Tom was an outstanding person, full with energy & always a smile on his face. Last time I saw Tom was 2 years ago in Orlando in our Annual BWW convention. First thing he told me when he saw me. THANK YOU Edmond for supporting our brand & for supporting my stores. I will miss Tom & he will be in my daily prayers. May his soul rest in Peace. I am sure Tom is sitting in Heaven next to our Lord. Edmond Farran

“ Tom and I became friends when I started back at Howmet back in '95. I always admired his drive and passion for his work. We would run down to Roc 'n Rog's at lunchtime so he could set up the register for the evening then we'd have a couple games of pool before it was time to head back. He stood up for me at my wedding and after I moved away, I was always able to keep in contact with him a few times a year. I will miss you, my friend. So long, Roc.

“ Tom was a great guy. Very tan in the summer. I remember his room in the basement. His sister Karen and I would sneak in and check out his posters under the black light in his room.
